Hagood's Crossroads, Alabama Hears From "The Master Race", Australian Bureau

"THE AGED HITLER JUGEND DOWN UNDER" or
"HOW I LEARNED NOTHING FROM WORLD WAR II."

NOTE: I received this missive in response to "What Good Can A Handgun Do Against An Army...?" While I often respond to such attacks charge by charge and paragraph by paragraph, I think you must read this in its entirety to get the true flavor of it. My response will be found at the end of Unterscheissfuhrer Pauli's lament.

Hi Mike, I read an article written by you, on gun control. I'm a German born Australian, I lived under Hitler and I can tell you, for the first few years, until Allied bombers started their Holocaust on our cities, it was the best time of my life. We had our honour, we had freedom, we had RACE, we had culture, full employment, we had no junkies, no street gangs, no graffiti, no drug trade, and our beautiful women could walk our very uncluttered streets, unmolested.

You write that if every Jew and anti-nazi in Germany had had a gun and the guts to use it, Hitler would have been a footnote of History.....
Well Mike, the Jews got YOU to take up guns against Hitler.

AND, if it hadn't have been for the Jews there would have been no Nazi party at all.

It was German Zionists that stabbed Germany in the back in WW1 (The war to get them Palestine) and then took terrible reparations from Germany after they swindled the US into fighting and winning the war for them..... it was Jewish Bankers that bankrolled Hitler into power and then, when he wanted to throw them out of OUR country in 1933 they declared war on Germany again. It was US Zionists that created tensions between Poland and Germany about the Danzig corridor and it was once again US Zionists than swindled the USA into forcing Japan to attack Pearl Harbour,..... once again, to get at Germany.

You Americans have been used and slaughtered in millions to satisfy Zionist demands and you still haven't caught on. Jews are not warriors, they never have been...they use other people's armies like YOURS, to do the most of their dirty work.

You should be so lucky to get such a President like Adolf Hitler, a man of dignity and charisma, a non-smoking vegetarian, a man who fought for his country, a man who lived and died for love of his country and people. He will be remembered in a thousand years.

That silly damned joke of a dope-smoking, lying, womanizing, draft-dodging gutless s.o.b you call a President is a bad joke compared to Adolf Hitler.

And the NWO you are so worried about!!

The very same people who financed Hitler, who financed Stalin, who murdered the Russian Zsar, who invented and financed Bolshevism, still own and run your Federal Reserve Bank...they have caused every depression and recession the world has ever seen, they bankroll every Gov't and every dictator and the only one in history with GUTS enough to stand up to them was ADOLF HITLER.

Mike for God's sake wake up, otherwise one day a person will sneak up from behind you and just before he pulls the trigger of his pistol, he will say.... Goodbye Gentile!!

Paul. Sydney Australia

17 December 1998

Dear Still-Don't-Get-It In Sydney,

It was particularly appropriate that I received your letter of complaint on 17 December, the 54th anniversary of the massacre at Malmedy of 86 unarmed American POWs by your admired SS during the Battle of the Bulge. Unlike many Americans who are historical amnesiacs, I remember the pictures of the frozen corpses and blood on the snow very well. I remember also listening to my Uncle Bill, who fought with Patton's Third Army, about his experiences in 1945 when he helped liberate one of the concentration camps. I suppose you think he was hallucinating, perhaps? Nazi-symps of various kinds have tried to deny the Holocaust (which killed five million non-Jews as well as 6 million Jews.) All have failed because the reality of Nazism was not only captured on film, but was brought home etched in the memories of American veterans who had no political axe to grind yet who could not get the smell of the ovens out of their memories. Men like my uncle, a farmboy from Michigan, whose sleep was disturbed by the sights and sounds he had experienced in places like Dachau. Film footage may be faked, as the Nazis taught us, but thousands of independent first-person memories such as my Uncle Bill's proved the lie that is the stock in trade of the Holocaust-deniers.

My uncle was proud to have served in the crusade against Hitler's tyranny. He certainly did not feel he was "a tool of the Jews." Hitler, as I recall, said that Americans were "a mongrel race" unable to stand against the "master race" of German Aryans (which was a lie in itself, Germans of the 20th Century being no more "racially pure" than anyone else). I guess we found out that the "mongrel race" could whip the "master race," which has kept your fellow Germans from betting their futures on another dog-fight in the half-century- plus since.

Your blind loyalty, even with the hindsight of sixty years, to a "non-smoking vegetarian" who proved to be such a stupid, short-sighted and disastrous leader to his own people would be laughable were it not so moronically tragic. I mean, even the British elected not to assassinate him because he was doing too much damage to his own country's war effort. I suppose "the Jews" manipulated Hitler into being so stupid, right? Surely you don't admit THAT possibility.

You must know that "the Jews" didn't get us to "take up guns against Hitler", but rather it was Hitler who declared war on the U.S. on 8 Dec 1941. He didn't have to, you know, even after Pearl Harbor. In fact, Churchill feared that he wouldn't. And fanciful ravings about "U.S. Zionists swindling the USA into forcing Japan to attack Pearl Harbor" fall apart when you consider that Japan had been planning on just such a strike since at least the time of the Russo-Japanese War of 1905. Homer Lea, hardly a "Zionist", wrote warnings about such an attack decades before it happened. Japan and the U.S. were fated to clash in the Pacific in the middle years of the 20th Century, and it didn't take Jews or even the oil embargo to cause it. And unless "the Jews" were pulling Hitler's strings, they didn't make him declare war on the U.S.

But three cheers for the "mongrel race" and the "untermenschen". We whipped your murderous, sorry Nazi German asses after much blood and treasure had been expended and the world is a better place today because of it. We Americans whipped racial-collectivist National Socialism; we stood fast against Soviet Communism until it fell of its own godless-collectivist weight; and we'll stop the global elitist-collectivists like Clinton in this country before we're through. We're Americans. We don't fight for "fuhrer", and we don't fight for Jews, we fight for freedom.

Like your idiot fuhrer who misunderstood the prowess of American soldiery, I would like you to restate your claim that "Jews are not warriors" in front of one of the men of Jewish faith in my Constitutional militia unit. He would kick your Nazi butt, or that of any other designated specimen of the "master race", until you changed your mind. I suppose Israel whipped the combined forces of the Arab states over the past fifty years in four wars with only accountants, lawyers and bankers? I think not.

Your allegation that World War I was fought at the instigation of "the Jews" to "get them Palestine" would no doubt have been a shock to the Kaiser in 1914, not to mention Arch Duke Ferdinand. I will give you points for a sort of twisted consistency, though. If every evil deed of European Christians and Aryans (not necessarily the same, as you pagan Nazis well know) can be laid at the door of another group of folks, in your case, "the Jews", well then you're not responsible for anything, now are you? Under that conspiracy-theory- absolution you can kill anybody you want, and say, "The Jews made me do it!!" This is the same modus operandi of our present administration, which blames all its troubles on a "vast right-wing conspiracy." Scratch a liberal, and get a fascist, or a communist.

You're all grown out of the same poisoned patch of collectivist sewage sludge. In the end it all amounts to state power versus individual liberty. Pardon me if I stand on the opposing side to murder, death and tyranny. Or pardon me not, you godless Nazi slime, I care not which. I care only that we defeat your kind in my generation just as we did in my father's. Begone, you pitiful ragged remnant of night-stalking murderous evil-doers, your lies have no power in the light of Lady Liberty's torch; your wickedness and corruption are as nothing to the power of God, and those who serve Him on earth.

And of all the lies you tell above, the greatest is your characterization of Hitler as "a man who lived and died for love of his country and people." Hitler believed that he WAS the German nation, and that if he had to die in a Goetterdammerung, then so did his people down to the last babe. He issued orders to that effect. He ordered Germany to commit suicide right along with him. He and Jim Jones would have understood each other. Jim Jones, who posted armed guards to force his followers to drink the poisoned Koolaid. And what could be more selfish? To condemn millions of his own so-called "beloved Volk" to die for him and to make of his own country a desert - this represents to you a man who loved his country?

Obviously the high-ranking Germans who refused to carry out his last ditch orders didn't think so. Heck, your beloved SS were the first to run to Switzerland, leaving the Wehrmacht holding the bag. Real "ubermenschen", ja? They loved their country so much, they grabbed the gold and ran. Patriotism has seldom had a shinier example, hey, Pauli?

And while we're at it: If you still believe this crap, why didn't you die in that last ditch, my little Hitler Jugend Kameraden-weasel? How come you didn't end up as some diminutive Volksturm corpse in a greatcoat three sizes too big, ground into the mud of a village road by tank treads, still clutching a Panzerfaust you never had a chance to use? Are you perhaps overcome by the stark fact that given the chance to die "fur Volk und Führer" you took the coward's way out? "Sieg Heil Unterscheissfuhrer Pauli." The Jews of Masada elected to die rather than knuckle under to Roman tyranny. They elected to do it. No one ordered them to. It is an important distinction. Yet you, Pauli, didn't even have the courage to die for your beliefs like the po-ass Jews you so much despise. You didn't even have the courage of a little Jewish sewer rat of the Warsaw Ghetto, or the rebellious walking dead of Treblinka.

In retrospect, it seems to me that your decision not to die in an unholy cause was a wise one. But I'm a little mystified that such a sensible coward as yourself would continue to this day to spout the lies that he refused to die for. Of course it has been my experience that collectivists from Lenin to Stalin to Hitler to Clinton lie so much they are unable to discern the truth. They only believe that the truth is what they want it to be, and anything to the contrary can be ignored, covered up or killed. In secular terms, such tyrants generally end up being destroyed by their own inability to make reality fit their wishes. In spiritual terms, they are destroyed because they do not serve God nor his cause on earth. Indeed, it is men and women of faith who such godless collectivists fear and attack first. Citizens who hew to their belief in God and will not genuflect to an evil state are the worst enemies of beasts such as Hitler and Stalin.

I don't know how it is in Australia, Pauli, but here in the United States you have the right to spout any godless opinion or damnable lie you wish. Yet while you have the right to speak, you are not guaranteed the right to be believed. In addition, our Founders saw to it that we have the means to deal with murdering tyrants great and small-- The Second Amendment to our Constitution codifies it. Please re-read my first essay again, you obviously did not get the point. As, apparently, you missed the point of World War II. Of course now that Australia is disarmed, your once-proud and independent adopted country is a more fertile ground for your deadly philosophy. But don't come pushing your Nazi crap around Americans, Pauli. Don't try to take your poison from the realm of opinion to practice. We're the folks who taught you Nazis how to dance the "Nuremburg Jig", remember? If you don't recall, rest assured we do. By virtue of your cowardice we missed you the first time round. If you feel up to pushing your murderous Nazi point again, may God have mercy on your heathen soul. We're just the free men and women who can give you a chance to meet Him face-to-face. Just ask your "beloved" fuhrer the next time you see him.
